WHAT EVERY

WOMAN KNOWS must rest on a foundation of fact. For three generations women of experience have learned of the efficacy of Beecham's Pills for the ills that beact their sex. Many are but symptoms of a disordered digestive system. Organs far removed are affected through sympathy. If you are feeling run duwn or suffer from pains that unfit you for your tasks, if housekeeping is a drudgery to you, or work at your daily vocation a tortare, don't continue to be a martyr, but cure yourself—easily, apeedily, inexpensively. THE BREAKDOWN OF THE AIR BOARD. It is just a week, says The Times, since we called attention to the deplorable deadlock which has slowly paralysed the Air Board, and averything which has come to our notice since has confirmed that warning. In our own opinion, the Board, under the conditions with which it is hampered, was always foredoomed to failure. We run the risk of ultimate dissears as every airman knows because the to failure. We run the risk of ultimate disaster, as every airman knows, because the anergy which ought to be concentrated on beating the Germans is still very largely dissipated in competition and quarrelling between Government departments at home. Though these facts are admitted by averyone concerned, there are legitimate differences of opinion about the remedy. But the essential point, and all that concerns the public is this: There must be one authority, no matter what it may be called, which is strong enough to stop the present competition between the Army and the Navy. So long as orders can be placed haphasard and independently, both by the Royal Tlying Corps and by the Royal Naval Air Serhazard and independently, both by the Roya Flying Corps and by the Royal Naval Air Ser nice, there is no nope whatever or getting the utmost out of the manufacturers. Matters have come to a pass at which tinkering is almost useless. Nothing will really mend them but a complete change of system.

HINDENBURG INTER-

VIEWED. Marshal von Hindenburg, says The Time has made use of an interview with a correspondent of the Vienna Neue Freie Presse to pre and narticularly to belittle the significance of the Anglo-French victories on the Somme. His observations are of the usual propagandist type, and his object of creating ill-feeling between ns and our French Ally is searcely veiled. In the whole interview, however, there is no word of a victorious German offensive. Hindenburg and his Chief of Staff, General von Ludendorff, who was with him, speak only of being able to hold their own. According to our correspondent in amsterdam, the interviewer, merr Gommann, ions are of the usual propagandist type nents. Prophecy is thankless, and it is better to the north to abandon it in war time. It is possible that Another analysis will bring battles that will decide the war, but I do not know, and nobody knows. SHAM FIGHT TO AMUSE THE last night ceded by inte

The Frankfurter Zeitung, says The Limes, publishes an enthusiastic account of the Kaiser's recent tour on the Western front. It appears that after the usual visit to a hospital and the delivery of the speech already reported, the Kaiser enjoyed not only a march past, but a sham fight, organised for his benefit, to give him "a little picture of the heavy fighting on the right." him "a little picture of the heavy fighting on the Somme front." The Frankfurter Zeitung correspondent describes it as follows:—
The newest methods of the modern attack were presented. The artillery bombarded until it was ready for storming a blockhouse with trenches and then the infantry advanced in order to ave obstacles, and then the infantry advanced in was a manœuvre exercise which one must multiply by a thousand in order to get a feeble idea of the violence of the fighting. Only flashed from their brave and happy looks.

THE proverb says that "many hands make light work"—but at Port Sunlight the hands of every woman worker are making light work even of those tasks which, before the war, were judged beyond their strength. But nearly 3,000 Sunlight men have joined the colours, and the girls who have taken their places in the ranks of industry are demonstrating to the world that heavy tasks can be done with light hearts, where loyalty and devotion to duty are the order of the day. The war has altered many things, but it has not altered Hall's Wine. If we had lowered the standard of Hall's Wine because of new economic conditions, it would no longer have been real Hall's Wine. standard of Hall's Wine must be maintained. It is this that makes all the difference between Hall's Wine and other preparations offered in place of it, and gives it its supreme restorative value. The economic value of Hall's Wine lies not so much in its price as in its results. It quickly restores the weak, ailing, or convalescent.

"I know of nothing which will pick up anyone recovering from Influenza or any such illness so well as Hall's Wine. I always presents it when I can, and invariably find it answer all my expectations." (Lane on Mi.)

GERMAN PLANS. The Military Correspondent of The Tin discusses the German plans, and suggests as a probability that, while Brussiloff may be better probability that, while Brussiloff may be better epponed. Rumania will be the chief quarry, and that with the new Austro-German Army, naw probably in course of concentration on the Marcs, the Bulgarian Army, and the Turks, an affort will be made to crush our new Ally, and to treat her as Serbia was treated. In addition to the Turks in Galicia, some three weak Divisions may come up from Thrace, while, unless the Bulgarian Army be more closely tackled elsewhere, the bulk of it will be drawn by Mackensen towards Rumania. We, Allies, must, in this case, come to the aid of Rumania with all our might. This does not mean that, we should allow our strategy to be defected, but rather that the settled plan of the Allies should be pursued with increased energy and should be pursued with increased energy and decision. To fly about the world to any point where Hindeuburg beckons us is an act of folly. The plan of the Alites for 1916—Salonika

LORD NORTHCLIFFE IN Lord Northcliffe, in a message to The Times from San Sebastian, writes: -While it is difficult for anyone who has seen anything of the horrors of the German invasion of Belgium and France to comprehend the neutral frame of mind, it has to be remembered in visiting and contrasting Spain, where there is no sign of conflict that her neone are at near. A few of contrasting Spain, where there is no sign of conflict, that her people are at peace. A few of the more far-accing Spainsh leaders do not quite like that situation. There is a good deal of jealousy of little Portugal, who has not been afraid to throw down her glove to the Kaiser, but, on the whole, Spain in general, and industrial Society in extracting spaces, by clade to be clade. trial Spain in particular, appears to be glad to be out of the maelstrom. DURHAM LIGHT INFANTRY.

A pleasing function took place at the Jammet Restaurant yesterday aftersion, when the Committee of the O.T.C. Commemoration Ful. H. S. Beatty, their Hon. Secretary and Hon. Treasurer. The cup is a replica of the one recently presented to the Provent of Trinity College. Sir Maurice Dockrell, D.L., at the conclusion of luncheon, said that it was entirely owing to the splendid organising powers and energy of Mr. Beatty that the movement to place on record the part the O.T.C. of Trinity College had played in the recent trouble had been such a success, and he was glad to be in a position to show Mr. Beatty by the presentation that the Committee appreciated the work which he had done. Mr. Beatty replied in suitable terms.

Among the members of the Committee present were—Mesers. W. L. Burke, E. Tenison Collins, Henry Dudgeon, and Prederick J. Thompson. The guests included—Major Tate, Commandant O.T.C.; Major Harris, Lieutenant Cecil Robinson, O.T.C.; Mesers. John Mooney, D.L., C.V.O.; John Healy, Heary Macran, P.T.C.D.; Henry M. Dockrell, Kenneth Dockrell, and S. W. Maddock, J.P. DENHAM LIGHT INFANTRY.

when you go into a shop and ask for 'the best' flour. See the name

It is the original 'best flour' that Ireland's housewives have been buying for close on twenty years.

It is easy enough to imitate the original 'Spillers' Purity' Bag, but nobody can put Spillers' quality of flour into it but ourselves! Remember this and look for the name-

You can get it in the original cotton bags, branded 'Spillers,' packed in various sizes from " half-a-stone to 16 stones, at any grocer's or flour dealer's.
